from Andy Steele to All Participants:
 Hey Scott - didnt you have new load calcs for the second story
 From ScottCooper to all participants:
 Are we on the same subject here? I really like the KA toaster—the charcoal color choice gets me right here (taps on heart to show affection).

Scheduling Meetings

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Outlook interface for scheduling a meeting. The 'Add WebEx Meeting' button is highlighted with a red circle and a red arrow pointing to the 'WebEx Settings' dialog box. The dialog box is divided into two tabs: 'Template and Password' and 'General Settings'.

Template and Password:

- Meeting template: MC: Kurze Besprechung
- Meeting password: *
- Confirm password: *
- Exclude password from email invitation
- Do not list this meeting on the WebEx site

General Settings:

- Audio Conference
- Conference type: WebEx Teleconference
- Note: The call-in option is always available
- Attendees receive call back
- Display global call-in numbers to attendees
- Integrated VoIP

* Required fields

OK Cancel

The background window shows the 'Appointment' form with fields for Subject, Location, Start time (Fri 7/20/2007, 1:00), End time (Fri 7/20/2007, 1:30), and a 15-minute reminder. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, system tray, and taskbar with the time 12:48 PM.
